

UNIFORM

POLICY

Rationale

According to the Department of Education and Training, Templeton Primary School Council has the authority to develop and implement dress codes for their students as outlined in legislation relating to dress codes.

Schools work with their school communities in:

- Developing and reviewing dress codes
- Implementing and enforcing dress codes.

All dress codes must meet:

- Human rights and anti-discrimination requirements
- Include an exemption process
- Health and safety considerations
- Requirements relating to uniform supply arrangements.

Schools also work with the State Schools' Relief to support students in need as well as supporting fundraising activities.

Purpose

- Promoting a sense of identity, pride, cohesion and good order in the school
- Allowing all students to feel equal
- Preventing bullying and competition on the basis of clothing
- Ensuring students' appearance reflects the expectations of their school community
- Enhancing the profile and identity of the school and its students within the wider community
- Strengthening the spirit of community within the school
- Enhancing individual student safety and group security
- Ensuring all students are dressed safely and appropriately for school activities
- Encouraging students to develop pride in their appearance
- Preparing students for the expectations of workplaces
- Encouraging students to present themselves appropriately for a particular role.

Responsibilities of School Council

- Deciding on arrangements for the supply of school uniform items
- Compliance with written agreements with clothing suppliers and may be subject to legal proceedings if a dispute arises between the parties
- Must not make any misrepresentations while making agreements with suppliers (for example, misrepresenting the number of students at the school).
- Costs
- Quality of items
- Quality control of the supplier
- Reliability, continuity and lead time of supply
- Ability of manufacturers/suppliers to meet required delivery deadlines
- Selecting Australian made items or using local businesses
- Sustainable production of items
- How and where parents or carers can purchase items
- Returns policy for faulty stock
- Re-use or recycling of items.
